Bertelson, Daniel F.

1973. Mississippi forest industries, 1972. South. For. Exp. Stn., New Orleans, La. 27 p. (USDA For. Serv. Resour. Bull. SO-43)

Mississippi forests supplied more than 559 million cubic feet of roundwood to forest industries in 1972. Pulpwood and saw logs were the major products, accounting for 85 percent of the harvest. A total of 315 primary wood-using plants were in operation in 1972.
